The Scenes Now Taking Place in England.

The English boast of their Conservatism—of their moderation and of their superior civilization generally—and yet the scenes now occurring at the Parliamentary elections would be a disgrace to this country in the days of slavery. The American people do not in these times so far forget what is due to free speech and common fairness as do the English in their elections. No speaker in England is said from insult, not even men like Mr. GLAD stone, the Premier, or Mr. Disharli, the leader of the Opposition. Here is a specimen, for instance, of the way the Liberals and Conservatives respect each other's rights at the polls:

"The contest for Lincoln city was close and exciting and attended by great disorder. A large mob at one time held possession of the streets; attacks were made on the polling places, windows were smashed and an attempt was made to set fire to a hotel.

"It was best for the Church and for the race that Christ left the world. If the Savfor bad remained at Jerusalem there would have femaniced at Jerusalem there would have

He would nave been subject to human infirmities, and continually hampered by them ther than that, the benefits of seeing him would have been permitted only to a com-

We do not mean to say that such scenes as this characterize every place where the polls are opened. This is the worst case of disorder that we have noticed, but still it is only one case of disturbance and riotous demonstration out of average labeled which is the wild, unhallowed speculation indulged in, or the language in which it is uttered. out of several that have happened thus early in the Parliamentary campaign. It is fair to presume that we shall see more of

to see that Mr. Gladstone is rather losing than grining strength thus far, but inasmuch as the elections have only just begun we do not despair of his ultimate success. He represents the progressive element in British politics. He it is who brought forward and put through that sound and the transfer of his own. But to the great central idea in Christianity, the idea of a Sayour, a Divine Man, he has hith-early settlement of that difficulty, it is possible that he may escape serious injury rom it at the polls. We observe that Mr. Distance alloded to it in very bitter Disharkell alloded to it in very bitter terms in his epeech at Aylesbury, on Saturday last. He said that "the dissolution of Parliament was an act of black treachery which Mr. Gladstone learned from the tactics of the Ashantees." This is the rough sort of language that even so prominent as English statesman as Disharkel, who aspires to the Premiership of the also spoke of Mr. GLADSTONE'S proposed reduction of the Income tax as " a bribe to secure success in the coming elections" essarily change the style of speech incident to a political campaign.

JOHN BRIGHT, the great leader and agitator, will vigorously support GLAD-STONE'S policy, and therefore the prospects of "liberal union," which is regarded so essential to success notwithstanding the dissensions, promise good results. Both sides are hopeful of victory and the canvass will be intensely exciting. The new Parliament will meet the 5th of March.

Ir has been a matter of great difficulty to find out how England managed to get The Enterprise Baking Powder into a squabble with the negroes of the Gold Coast. But Frazier's Magazine tells the story. It seems the English and the Dutch proposed to swap some property that neither of them owned. The Ashan tee tribe happened to live on that territory that the Dutch gave to England, and so they went with the farm. A little misunderstanding arose, and Atjiempoa lost his Fetish stool, a sacred and valuable religious article. In his search for the stool, a rival prince interfered, and then Eng land's honor being at stake, she interfered And Disraell considers this his main chance. We suggest international arbi-

In general no one expects reverence from Mr. Beecher. It is not a character-istic of his, and we have learned to accept many of his notable, and, let us say, noble this before the great contest now going on between Liberals and Torics is ended.

Speaking of this contest, we are sorry to see that Mr. Gladston is rather losing.

He it is also who has manifested a disposition to deal fairly, with the Catholics in Ireland in matters of eleemosenary grants.

The opposition to Mr. Gladstone are trying to make head against him on account of the Ashantee war in which the country has been engaged, but as the last advices are rather favorable for an early settlement of that difficulty, it is phatically, is himself—his ideas, his specular accounts of the desaporation to the Ashantee war in which the last advices are rather favorable for an early settlement of that difficulty, it is phatically, is himself—his ideas, his specular accounts his rectangular control and the formation of the Ashantee war in which the does be preach anything outside of himself. The income tax which Mr. Gladetone proposes to abolish amounts to about $20,000,000 annually, and the sugar and coffee dulles to about $10,000,000. This will necessitate the transfer of the burden of taxation probably to the wealthy land owners—a relief to the laborers which they will appreciate and be glad to support by their ballots.

the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misgrided and impredent volary of pleasure finds he has imbiled the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an illitimed sense of shame or dread of discovery deter him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this borrid disease make their appearance such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, not turnal pains in the head and illimbe, dimbnes of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, fince and extremetice, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victims of this swful disease becomes a horrid object of commissration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to "That Undiscovered Country from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskillnings of fignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that Darant Poison, Menoust, roin the constitution, and make the residue of life miser able.
